

Wine at our Cost...plus a little

Out of the vault and into our shop – we're dipping into our reserves and super allocated gems to offer you some of our hottest wines that were intended for extended cellaring. You'll have to move fast if you see something you want – quantities are extremely limited and with our insane close to cost (some dating back to when we bought them in 2002) pricing (what's listed below, plus sales tax and a $5 donation to Big Table) they won't last long. Be sure to check back often as we'll be updating it daily. All bottles are 750ml unless indicated otherwise.

Caveat Emptor

All wine sales are final. While the provenance and cellar conditions of all the wines listed here are sound, occasionally, some wines can develop flaws or evolve in a way one would not expect.

The wines of Williams-Selyem

Williams Selyem Winery began as a simple dream of two friends, Ed Selyem and Burt Williams, who pursued weekend winemaking as a hobby in 1979 in a garage in Forestville, California, and made their first commercial vintage in 1981. In less than two decades, Burt and Ed created a cult-status winery of international acclaim. Together they set a new standard for Pinot Noir winemaking in the United States, aligning Sonoma County's Russian River Valley in the firmament of the best winegrowing regions of the world. Today John and Kathe Dyson, who purchased the winery from Burt and Ed in 1998, carry on the passion for Pinot Noir winemaking without compromise. As for the wines... they just keep getting better and better. Many of these wines are not even distributed in Washington State. Come get some!

Domaine Comte George de Vogue

Certainly the greatest estate in Chambolle-Musigny if not in greater Burgundy, de Vogüé for 20 generations has been steward of the village's top terroirs. The estate owns some 80 percent of grand cru Le Musigny, and a significant portion of grand cru Bonnes-Mares. Its premier cru Chambolle-Musigny is crafted exclusively from younger-vine fruit in Musigny.
